

SLEEVE IT TO ME

Shirts with puffy sleeves are just one of the trends we'll be seeing this spring. This simple and structured version can be glammed up with pretty layered necklaces.

FRESH & FABULOUS

Springtime calls for light hues and breezy, beautiful fabrics, both of which you'll find in the floaty fashions on the following pages.

LET THE WIND BLOW

How great does it feel when your clothes barely touch your skin? We love this dressed-up yet ultra comfortable aesthetic that's perfect for wearing on a warm and sunny day.

DRESS TO IMPRESS

The combination of a sleek silk dress and a funky pair of cowboy boots is exactly what we call casual sophistication. A stylish headband offers even more fun.

Full Sleeve Bias Cut Silk DRESS in Pink, $515, silklaundry.ca. Elsa Knotted HEADBAND in Dusty Rose, $78, heirloomhats.com. Lynn Cowboy BOOTS, $98, urbanoutfitters.com.

RELISH THE RETRO

We love this layered ensemble for its pops of yellow, beige and terracotta contrasted with white bottoms. High-rise jeans, wide sleeves and the tie-dye look call to styles from the '70s. Can you dig it?

SUSPEND YOUR BELIEF

Wide-legged jeans offer a relaxed, comfortable feel, and the removable suspenders on this pair are a playful addition. Keep the look easy and effortless by partnering with a plain white cami and a chunky necklace.
