why WE LOVE IT

We're suckers for anything that uses playful painterly patterns and vibrant colours, especially when they're part of such a delicate feminine design. These botanical porcelain pieces bring to mind the best antique bone china but are updated into easy-care dinnerware for everyday use – a modern classic in the making.

where IT WORKS

This breezy design looks at home in any kitchen, dining room or solarium. The summery aesthetic can easily transition to another season with the addition of darker table linens and accessories that pick up on the richer hues in the dinnerware's floral pattern.

who IT'S FOR

If you adore pretty flowery patterns and have a penchant for walking over moors and meadows, this dinnerware set will appeal to you. Cozy breakfast featuring crumpets, alfresco lunch with friends, afternoon riverside tea party or Sunday roast with family – you'll enjoy this charming dinnerware for years to come.
